FREUD'S LAST SESSION PG-13, 1 HOUR, 48 MIN.

As the world stands at the brink of World War II in September of 1939, an epic meeting of the minds takes place to debate the existence of God and the future of mankind. This film weaves together the lives of the theologian C.S. Lewis and founder of psychoanalysis, Sigmund Freud, and imagines what would've transpired if this occasion did, indeed, ever occur. Anthony Hopkins and Matthew Goode turn in stellar performances in the lead roles.
