Pembroke Pines at the movies

WICKED PG, 2 HOURS, 40 MIN.

This long-awaited, big-screen version of the Broadway musical sensation is the untold story of the witches from The Wizard of Oz. Award-winning vocal powerhouse Cynthia Erivo and pop superstar Ariana Grande team up to play Elphaba and Glinda, two university students in the fantastical Land of Oz who form an unlikely friendship. But as their paths diverge, things go awry, sending them to fulfill their destinies to become Glinda the Good and the Wicked Witch of the West. Part two of this film is due to be released in late 2025.

SPEAK NO EVIL R, 1 HOUR, 50 MIN. (RATED R FOR VIOLENCE, LANGUAGE, SEXUAL CONTENT AND BRIEF DRUG USE.)

In this psychologically thrilling horror film, an American family is delighted by an invitation to visit the idyllic country estate of a charming British family they befriended on vacation. But they're increasingly unnerved by strange incidents and their hosts' odd behavior, and their dream holiday ultimately turns into a nightmare when a sinister truth is revealed. James McAvoy turns in a particularly chilling performance alongside a supporting cast that includes Mackenzie Davis and Scoot McNairy.

WHITE BIRD PG-13, 2 HOURS, 1 MIN.

This inspirational sequel to Wonder, the book and subsequent movie that sparked a movement to choose kindness, follows a boy who has struggled to belong ever since he was expelled from school for his treatment of a classmate with facial deformities. To provide valuable perspective, his grandmother reveals her own story of benevolence, involving a boy who sheltered her from mortal danger when she was a young girl in Nazi-occupied France. This uplifting movie, which demonstrates how acts of kindness can live forever, stars Helen Mirren, Gillian Anderson and Bryce Gheisar.

JUDY PG-13, 1 HOUR, 58 MIN.

GOLDEN CINEMA CLASSIC

Renée Zellweger delivers a deeply committed, compassionate and Oscar-winning performance as beloved icon Judy Garland in her heartbreaking final days. Financially ruined and separated from her children, she reminisces with friends and fans while in London in 1968 to play a series of sold-out shows in a desperate attempt at a fresh start. The supporting 2019 cast includes Jessie Buckley, Finn Wittrock and Rufus Sewell.

A REAL PAIN R, 1 HOUR, 30 MIN.

(RATED R FOR LANGUAGE THROUGHOUT AND DRUG USE.)

Once inseparable as kids, cousins David and Benji now prove to be a clearly mismatched odd couple as they embark on a pilgrimage to Poland to honor their beloved grandmother, a Holocaust survivor. The adventurous tone of the trip takes a turn, however, when old tensions, family history and painful historical events begin to take their toll. Jesse Eisenberg wrote, directed and stars in this powerfully emotional, yet funny film, and Kieran Culkin's stunning, scene-stealing performance recently earned him a Golden Globe for best supporting actor.
