A REAL PAIN R, 1 HOUR, 30 MIN. (RATED R FOR LANGUAGE THROUGHOUT AND DRUG USE.)

Once inseparable as kids, cousins David and Benji now prove to be a clearly mismatched odd couple as they embark on a pilgrimage to Poland to honor their beloved grandmother, a Holocaust survivor. The adventurous tone of the trip takes a turn, however, when old tensions, family history and painful historical events begin to take their toll. Jesse Eisenberg wrote, directed and stars in this powerfully emotional, yet funny film, and Kieran Culkin's stunning, scene-stealing performance recently earned him a Golden Globe for best supporting actor.

CABRINI PG-13, 2 HOURS, 22 MIN.

This uplifting biopic with a timeless message tells the epic tale of an Italian woman who emigrates to New York City in 1889 only to discover horrific conditions of disease, crime and suffering. Despite limited English, poor health and opposition from powerful people, she endeavors to build an astonishing empire of hope in order to secure housing and healthcare for orphaned children. The film stars Cristiana Dell'Anna, John Lithgow and David Morse.

HERE PG-13, 1 HOUR, 44 MIN.

The director, writer and stars of Forrest Gump are reunited in this original film about love, loss, laughter and life. The story spans multiple generations of multiple families that inhabit the same home over the course of a century, capturing the essence of family and the human experience in its purest form. Based on an acclaimed graphic novel by Richard McGuire, it stars Tom Hanks, Robin Wright and Paul Bettany.

LA BAMBA PG-13, 1 HOUR, 48 MIN. GOLDEN CINEMA CLASSIC

This 1987 musical biopic tells the story of Ritchie Valens, a Los Angeles teenager who becomes an overnight rock 'n roll sensation in 1958 with his hit song, Donna. Along with conflicts with his girlfriend's disapproving parents and his jealous brother, he must contend with a recurring (and ultimately prophetic) nightmare of a plane crash, just as he's beginning his first national tour with Buddy Holly and The Big Bopper. Lou Diamond Phillips stars as the doomed young musician, alongside Esai Morales, Danielle von Zerneck and Marshall Crenshaw as Buddy Holly.

CONCLAVE PG, 2 HOURS

After the Pope dies unexpectedly, Cardinal Lawrence is tasked with overseeing the ancient, covert process of selecting a successor. But when the most powerful Catholic leaders assemble at the Vatican, he soon uncovers deep, dark secrets that could shake the foundations of the Church. This intelligent, well-executed drama delivers edge-of-your-seat suspense and a powerhouse performance by Ralph Fiennes. The superstar supporting cast includes Isabella Rossellini, John Lithgow and Stanley Tucci.
